Dear Fellow Bibliophile:

Thank you for requesting "Catalogue IV," our latest fixed price list of fine numismatic literature. The present offering contains a wide spectrum of rare, scarce and out-of-print material ranging from ancient to modern United States and foreign references, periodicals and auction catalogues.

Of special interest to students of ancient numismatics are "The Electrum Coinage of Lampsakos," by Agnes Baldwin published in 1914, and the 1911 edition of Barclay V. Head's "Historia Numorum."

Highlights of United States literature include an original 1875 edition of Sylvester Sage Crosby's "Early Coins of America;" the 1865 volume of Dickeson's "The American Numismatic Manual;" Snowden's "A Description of Ancient and Modern Coins in the Cabinet Collection at the Mint of the United States" published in 1860; and the original 1944 edition of Howard R. Newcomb's "United States Copper Cents 1816 - 1857."

In addition, we offer a fine selection of small size Chapman catalogues in mint to near-mint condition. These copies are duplicates from the library of Mr. Armand Champa, and are exceptional for their outstanding state of preservation. They offer a unique opportunity for the serious Chapman collector to add some of the finest available catalogues to his library.

For the "Redbook" and "Bluebook" enthusiast, we are pleased to offer many examples of every edition in both series. There is also a large number of Wayte Raymond's "Standard Catalogue of United States Coins," including a first edition in near mint condition.

You will also find numerous titles of later references covering virtually the entire field of numismatics. However, should you not see a specific work which you may be seeking, please feel free to send us your want list, as our present stock consists of more than 3,000 volumes, and chances are good that we will have the titles you want. If we do not have it in stock, every effort will be made to secure the book for you.

As previously announced, we will be conducting our first mail bid sale in the Fall. Persons interested in consigning material to the sale are invited to contact us for full details.

Again, thank you for your past patronage and continued support, and we look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Best Regards,

Cal Wilson
